An oasis in the service desert.

We won't leave you out on your own!

For us the term "service" is not a fata morgana, but a commitment to our customers. There are very few companies who see this as we do. We have a hotline manned every day for you with competent and helpful members of staff. And if you have a warranty claim, this will of course be dealt with promptly.

Help needed? Then just give us a call...
